ABSTRACT

In 1989, a graduate follow-up survey was conducted to gather data regarding student perceptions and activities following graduation from the Wisconsin Vocational, Technical and Adult Education System (VTAE). Primary objectives of the survey were to identify current activities of VTAE graduates, determine whether the activities were related to the graduates' educational programs, and provide information for career and program planning, evaluation, and development. A total of 13,635 graduates from VTAE's 16 districts were surveyed. Survey findings, based on an 88% response rate, included the following: (1) 57% of the respondents were females, and 41% were between the ages of 20 and 24; (2) 96% of the respondents were satisfied or very satisfied with their training; (3) 93% of the respondents who were interested in employment were working, and, of these, 87% held jobs either directly related or somewhat related to their training; (4) of the employed graduates, 91% were working in Wisconsin, with 73% of this group employed in the VTAE district where they received their training; (5) business programs had the highest number of graduates (N=2,446) and an 86% related-employment rate; (6) health program graduates ranked first in percent employed in a related field (93%), and second among those surveyed in number of graduates (2,404); and (7) the median monthly salary for VTAE graduates was $1,246. The survey instrument is appended. (WJT)

OVERVIEW

Introduction

The Graduate Follow-Up Survey is conducted annually to gather data regarding the activities and perceptions of students after graduation from the Wisconsin Vocational, Technical and Adult Education System.

The primary objectives of the survey are to identify the current activities of graduates of VTAE programs, to determine the extent to which current activities are related to the graduates' educational programs, to provide information to be used as tools in career awareness and planning efforts for those making or assisting in career decisions, and to provide data to facilitate program planning, evaluation and development.

Methodology

The 16 districts in the Wisconsin VTAE System surveyed graduates of programs in their respective districts. The survey was conducted between October and December, 1989. A total of 13,635 graduates were surveyed statewide with 11,950 responding, resulting in a response rate of 88 percent. These responses were submitted to the Wisconsin Board of Vocational, Technical and Adult Education for compilation of this statewide report. A copy of the survey instrument is included as Appendix A. Basic concepts and measures used throughout the report are defined below.

The labor force includes all employed and unemployed individuals except those who are unemployed and not seeking employment. A person is considered employed if he or she worked for pay or profit at the time of the survey. Individuals in any of these groups may be employed full-time or part-time. Full-time employment is defined as 35 or more hours per week; part-time employment is less than 35 hours per week. A person is considered unemployed if he or she performed no work for pay or profit at the time of the survey but was looking for work.

Survey respondents who are employed classify their jobs as directly related, somewhat related, or not related to the training received. In the follow-up data tables beginning on page 9, respondents who indicate their job is directly or somewhat related are counted in the employed related category. Thus, the employed related category is a subset of the employed category.

Monthly salary figures are reported for respondents who report being employed full-time in jobs related to their training. The salary range is based on the lowest and the highest reported figures. The median salary is the mid-point of salaries reported with half of the salaries below the mid-point and half above.

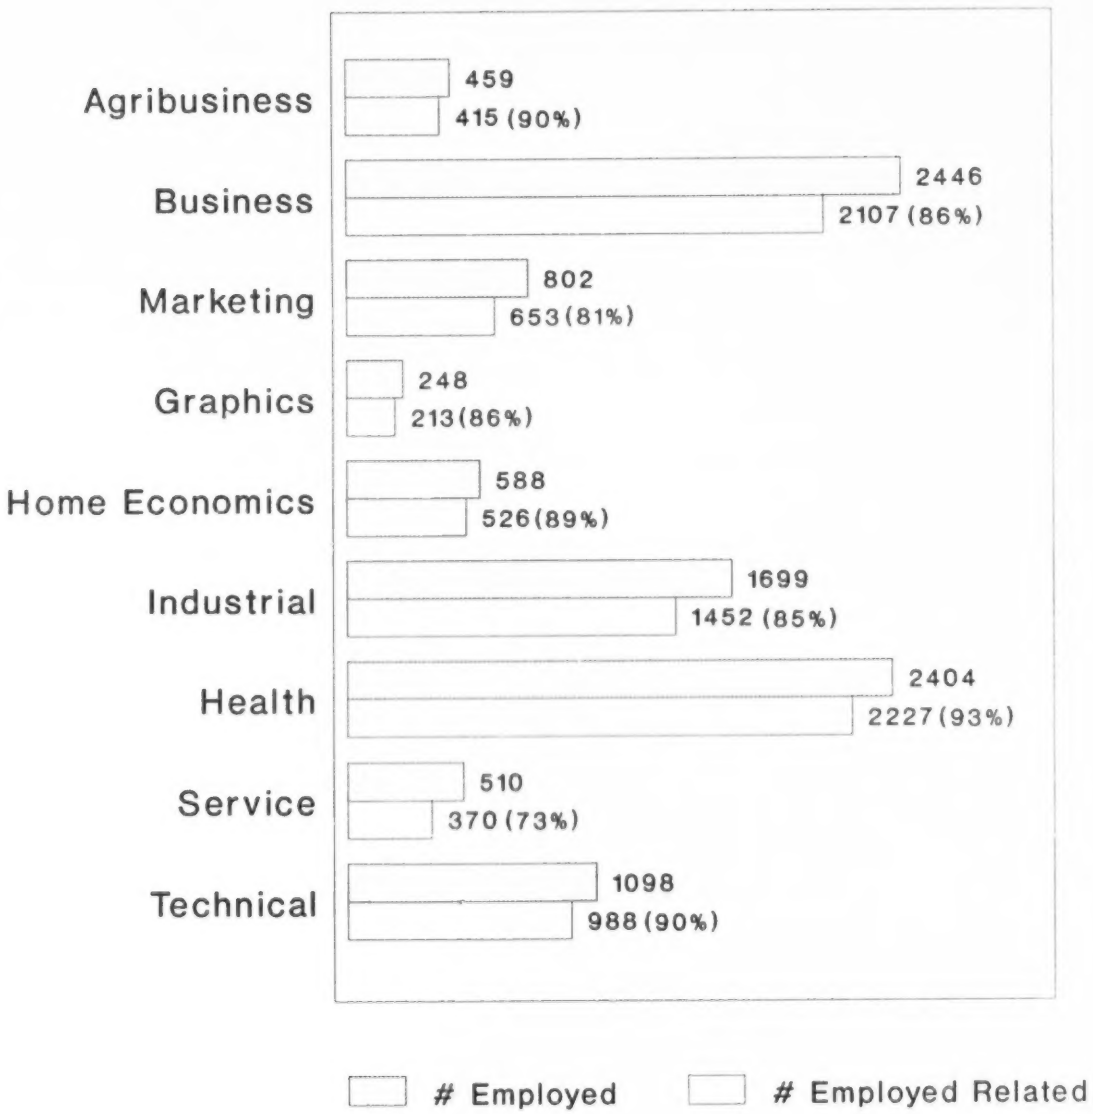
Business programs had the highest number of graduates (2446) and ranked fifth in terms of the percent employed related (86 percent). Health program graduates ranked first in terms of the percent employed related (93 percent), and had the second highest number of graduates of all instructional divisions (2404). Graphics programs had the lowest number of graduates (248), but 86 percent were able to obtain employment related to their training. Technical program graduates numbered 1098, with 90 percent employed related. 85 percent of the 1699 industrial program graduates secured employment related to their training. Of the 459 graduates from agribusiness programs, 90 percent were employed in a related occupation. 89 percent of home economics program graduates were employed related. Of all the instructional divisions, the marketing and service divisions had the lowest percentage of graduates who obtained jobs related to their training, 81 percent and 73 percent, respectively.

EMPLOYMENT RELATED TO TRAINING BY INSTRUCTIONAL DIVISION



MEDIAN MONTHLY SALARIES FOR INSTRUCTIONAL DIVISIONS

The chart below shows median monthly salaries in each instructional division. The median salary reflects the mid-point of all salaries reported for each instructional division. Salary figures are based only on those who report being employed full-time in jobs related to their training. The median monthly salary for all VTAE graduates is $1246. By comparison, the median monthly salary for all Wisconsin industries and occupations is $1341 (1988 Wisconsin Wage Survey, Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations, adjusted).
